Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 362 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. CHAPTEH I THE GREAT AMERICAN DESEHT THERE is a great desert in the interior of North America. It is almost as large as the famous Sain1 of Africa. It is fifteen hundred miles long. and a thousand wide. Now, if it were of a regular shape -that is to say, a parallelogram-you could at once eompute its area, by multiplying the length upon the breadth and yon would obtain one million and a half for the result-one million and a half of square miles. But its outlines are as yet yery imperfectly known; and although it is frnly fifteen hundred miles long, and in some places a thousand in breadth, its surface-extent is probably not over one million of sqnare miles, or twenty-fye times the size of England. . Fancy a desert twentyfive times as big as all England! Do you not think that it has received a most appropriate name when it is called the Great American Desert Now, my young friend, what do you unucrstand by a desert I think I can guess. , Vhel1 yon read or hear of
