

Absolute Agent: Techno-Thriller (Paperback)

By Raven Yang

Quadringentis, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The cover of this book was supposed to be its title: Top Secret. The supreme level of the universal data-protection (green/blue/red and Orange levels). This is what the icon above says and means. I didn't make the working title of my book its official out of professional courtesy. Anyone has the right to partake in the modern-day adventure-a Spy Game, because any spy game is the search for the truth. But if You Already Know, you can still get the kick from reading this novel. You just have to go through its chapters backwards (ten-to-one). Otherwise-proceed as usual, and take it easy. So- What if Michael Crichton, Philip K. Dick, and Wachowski brothers were wrong about one little thing? The ongoing digital revolution rewrote rules of the informational warfare. The Century of the Spy is over, but there were no reports of the Spy's Death. Thus, this story starts as a flashback depicting events that led to the dramatic demise of an unidentified Man in his sixties-and its central character. Right after the satellite signal sets his car ablaze, the responsible party reviews events...
