BRIGHTER DAYS: REACHING THE BETTER DAYS BEYOND YOUR STORM: BIBLICAL INSIGHTS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We all go through storms in life. For the most part, they arrive without notice and catch us completely off-guard. We can go from one ordinary day to our world flipped upside down within minutes. Other times, it may not be so sudden but after a while, we look at our lives and wonder how we went from such a good life to so much misery. We may have different ways of dealing with life's challenges but the Word of God gives an effective approach to take when faced with adversity. By examining the experiences of four personalities in the Bible, we can see how to overcome our own life storms. This Book presents an analysis of the lives of the following Bible personalities: Joseph The challenge most prominent in Joseph's life was the emotional pain he endured. The root cause of his suffering was his brothers jealousy. Their actions caused him more distress than they ever could have imagined. The pain of the experience still lingered more than twenty years later. Joseph experienced a lot of unfair treatment but God remained faithful to him throughout. Ultimately, he reconciled with his brothers and God healed the pain in his soul. Ruth Ruth's life was one seemingly torn by tragedy but eventually turning out beautifully. It has more to do with loyalty and endurance. With Ruth, we have a picture of suffering from a woman's perspective. Both Ruth and her mother-in-law experienced life after the loss of their husbands and it was challenging for them. They suffered emotionally but also had to deal with the poverty they faced. Ruth put her trust in God and he slowly but surely...
