As a secretary-turned-teacher, her love for words began in the first grade with the discovery of the word aidiosyncrasy, a while writing an acrostic as a tribute for her retiring first grade teacher. At that same time, she discovered Bible School at the small community chapel in East Galesburg, where she continues to attend today. Nancy continued writing poetry for occasions such as Mother's Day, Father's Day, retirements, graduations, anniversaries and memorials. As attendance in her small church grew, members of the congregation were asked to share their talents and their names were scheduled on a bulletin board known as aSpecials. Each time her name appeared on the board, Nancy prayed for inspiration. Each time it came with a look into humanity and hope, witnessing, prayer, truth, life, death and more. This is a collection of her aSpecials.
