The poultry journal solicitor with his aggressive friendly way meets you at the county fair or poultry show and asks you point blank. Do you raise chickens? You admit that you were raised on the farm and although you do not happen to be so fortunate as to be raising fowls now you certainly have a feeling that way. Accordingly you subscribe for the journal on the strength that it will tell you all about how to raise poultry. But many of the poultry journals have too much of the professional air about them and the person starting with fowls finds himself in deep water as far as understanding what a great many articles are about. Too many of us forget the time we got our first setting of eggs and just how eagerly we read every word we could find on how to rear chicks, feed, make coops and all the varied problems of poultry keeping. I did, like many of you have just done, answered an advertisement of one of the breeders claiming to have 57 varieties of land and water fowls. We got the immense catalog and then could hardly sleep nights thinking what an immense farm that breeder must have and if we only had it we would be in paradise, as far as this world is concerned. Somehow we are all after something cheap and at bargain prices. These little one inch ads scattered about in the periodicals and strangely quite scarce in the poultry journals have an enticing way...
