Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Abridged edition. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Annals of the Diocese of New Zealand, 1856 This Work was undertaken at the request of the Secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, and is intended to form one of the series of Annals of the Colonial Church. It has been the aim of the Editors to present, in a short but comprehensive form, a connected account of the progress of Christianity in New Zealand, from its first introduction in 1814 to the date of the latest intelligence from the colony. The first part of the Work is principally compiled from the letters of the Missionaries, which have been published at different times since the establishment of the Mission. The letters of the Bishop of New Zealand to the Society, and to his family in England. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy.
