Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Catalina VanDam, a young and beautiful woman from the Netherlands knew what it was like to go to bed hungry. But she was determined to change all that and the chance came when she got her dream job as a stewardess on a cruise ship for the rich and famous. But life can take unexpected turns and her life was about to change in more ways than one. Richard Grates, a young millionaire was tired of the insincerity and superficiality he saw around him and was looking for true love. Then he saw Catalina. Her fresh innocence and conviction for truth and honesty made him realize what he was missing. But her love came with a prize and would he be willing to pay it? A Light in the Dark is a tale of love and overcoming faith and will leave the reader with the conviction that there is always hope, even in the face of disaster.
