AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When a mother dies leaving her four children one of whom is restricted by illness and a father who deserted them, they must struggle to survive the harsh economic and spiritual forces that torment them daily. From the violence and civil unrest in the mean streets of Kingston to the hedonistic city of Montego Bay Jamaica, the struggle to survive remains the same. When their prayers go unanswered and God seems far away they are forced to choose between surviving at all costs or maintain their moral values even to the point of death. This fast paced action packed thriller is filled with real life experiences proving that not even the innocent is immune from the spiraling cycle of economic, spiritual and natural forces of disease, poverty and man s inhumanity.
