Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Red Sea Crossing by Edward Furlong (EF) began as an investigative 2 hour documentary on the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's network(CBC) (radio) in their Ideas series, which CBC then sold to PBS in the USA. The program discusses problems with the Biblical text, the only feasible location for the crossing is identified, and the natural phenomenon that occurred there is explained. . . . . Eden: Fact or Fantasy? also began as a 2 hour documentary with CBC. A university mathematics lecturer wrote to EF that he was preparing to go to a University open air concert featuring Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture complete with cannon when he recognized EF's voice (on the radio, which he took with him). Sitting in front seats with family and friends he had EF's radio voice firmly in his ear and taped the entire program. He thought he knew where Eden was, as scholars said, in Dilmun, but became convinced EF was right in finding a different location. . . . . The Obelisk shows what an obelisk did, how and why it was recognized and revered in ancient Egypt, India, Israel, and Mesopotamia. Its influence is shown in societies from Scotland to Australia where monuments or memories have survived, but not their language in written form.
