Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Rebecca James is just like the rest of her friends, smart, sporty, and has that snotty, rich attitude. Every day is the same, go to school, come home after soccer practice, and sometimes meet the next guy her mom was dating. However, this guy is different, he's that nice sort of mean, and all together dangerous. When Rebecca can't convince her mom of this, she decides it's time to go stay with her father, Allen, and everything goes from bad to worse. When she's hospitalized by her new boyfriend, and can't remember a thing, that's when all the demons come out from the dark. Werewolves and vampires are trying to kill her, some are trying to save her, and one vampire in particular trying to make her love him. Desperately trying to get her memories back, she blacks out long enough to get pieces of the memories - but she feels like they aren't her own. Who's could they be, and will she find out before it's too late? Lonely Souls is a sarcastic and darkly humorous read that will leave you begging for more.
