Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Need and the Value of Christian Schools in the Present Exigency of the New West: A Discourse Delivered in the Old South Church, Boston, Mass., Sunday Morning, May 24, 1885 Let God be praised for so much of result. Let all be praised, whether legislators, or governors, or attorneys, or judges, or juries, or editors, or platform speakers, or ministers, or loving and faithful teachers whose words have helped to diffuse light and to swell the tide of public indignation, or whoever has had any share - even the least in bringing about this new and hopeful state of things. It is some thing for which to be devoutly grateful. But is the problem altogether solved? Have we reached the end of the business? Or have we reached a point where the end is assured? Far from it. No mistake, indeed, could be more fatal than folding our hands and settling back into this easy and delightful confidence. It is no ordinary foe, this with which we deal. A more determined, a more bitter, a more unscrupulous body of men does not exist on the face of the globe than the leading officials of the Mormon hierarchy. Their whole past shows that they have no regard for the sacredness of an oath. Their whole past shows, too, that they have not a single drop of patriotic blood in their veins. They hate the Government. They hate the flag which symbolizes the majesty and power of the Government. They hate the representatives of our national sovereignty. With out any loyalty in their hearts to the Republic without any pride in our magnificent history; without any glow of...
