BEYOND LIGHTS - SHADOWS OF THE DARKNESS: URBAN LEGENDS FROM INDIA (VOLUME 2)*DOWNLOAD

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 92 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.2in. God and Satan. But who is more powerful this phenomenon is still under the rose. They say Light but I favor Darkness. No matter how far light goes where light reaches its limit darkness starts. No matter how large the diameter of light is, it is always enclosed in the Darkness. All the sources of light are limited weather it is a small lamp which lasts for few hours or Sun which continues for several billion years but at the end it will be the darkness which will win the race. Darkness is source less and endless and ever prevailing in this universe. Before the genesis of light there was darkness and after the extinction of light there will be darkness. Darkness was never born and will never end it is Omni present and ever present for creation of light darkness is essential. You can create light in darkness but you can never create darkness in light. Since very ancient times we are having representatives of darkness and light coming into this world in the proportion of their power and influence in this world and one can easily sense the ever increasing influence of the dark forces if go through the history. The sins are increasing; the darkness is expanding its sphere with every passing day. We have representatives of God right through the history. Shree Rama, Shree Krishna, Great Prophet, Holy Jesus from the darker front we have demons like Ravana, Kansa, Hitler and many more but these representatives are different more powerful thats why noticeable but in our day to day life and even after life we all are their representatives. My last book was about God...
