By John Pope

Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Correspondence Between General Pope, Commanding Military Division of the Missouri, and His Excellency, Gov; Fletcher, Concerning the Condition of Affairs in Missouri, and the Relations of the Military Forces Thereto This seeming neglect of the duiv and the privilege of American citizens, a duty by the strict performance of which alone can we maintain our freedom and our free institutions, is to be attributed mainly, I think, if not wholly. To an alarming and fatal tendency among the people, which I have been astonished and dismayed to notice elsewhere in more favored regions, to surrender to the military the execution of the laws, and thus to abandon all safeguards against tyranny and Oppression, and to pass unconsciously into a condition of acquiescence in the complete dominion of military authority. Once let the American people abandon themselves to this practice. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
