Excerpt: . field-notes contain the following: Thursday, June 10.--The ridge in sec. 26, T. 9, R. 6 W., is very narrow and steep on each side. Ridge is not over thirty yards wide, and the crest has numerous long, straight mounds on it conforming to it. The view from here is very fine. The mound-builders chose the ends of the ridges overlooking the Miss. River for their mounds. Saw a man-shaped mound near J post between sees. 36 35, T. 9, R. 6 W. Fig. 16 is a pencil-sketch drawn by Mr. Strong from the sketch contained in his field-notes: The field-notes contain the following in relation to the drawing (Fig. 16): On the man-effigies the body and breast bulge up much higher than the rest. They look like a man lying on his back. Mounds all about three feet high. Arms and legs on...

Reviews

An exceptional pdf and the typeface utilized was fascinating to read through. It can be written in straightforward words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just quickly could possibly get a delight of looking at a written ebook.

-- Prof. Arlie Bogan

It is a single of the best book. This is for those who state there had not been a well worth reading through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
