JANEE (PAPERBACK)

Xulon Press, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Janee Stemper has worked her entire life to achieve fame and fortune. Her talent and beauty has helped launch her career as a successful actress. But her life is empty, full of anger and sadness. Who would have thought that four defining moments in Janee s life would drive her far from love and God? She is on the very brink of destruction. Is there any way back? Will she discover hope and happiness in a most unexpected place or be forever doomed? Follow Farmer and Emile s granddaughter through a time that bares raw human emotion. Her story will move the reader and leave a lasting memory engraved upon the heart. Janee continues the dramatic epic of the Trevor family, expansive in scope and powerful in message. In 1982, JOHN AND PATTY PROBST accepted God s call to serve as chaplain to persons in the film, television, radio, and print media. Their ministry takes them into the studio lots and onto sets. They hosted a radio program that aired across the country. In addition, they produced and wrote a pilot and six television shows for national cable. They are also chaplain to a production company. The Probsts have traveled to the Philippines on church planting missions. John was part of a small film crew, shooting a mission project in Thailand. Patty is involved in Christian education. They started researching and writing the Strangers and Pilgrims Series in 2000; it will include seven books. The currently reside in Southern California.
