Many children will spell a word aloud, and be puzzled when told to put it in writing. Now, as we learn spelling chiefly to avoid blunders in writing, and as spelling is better learned by the eye than by the ear, dictation exercises ought to be an inseparable part of instruction. The words of this volume have been very carefully selected: such representative words being given as may be guides to the spelling of large classes of words of a similar sound, while the anomalous, words are so. classified as to be impressed on the memory by association. A pupil thoroughly drilled in the exercises here presented will not be far from being an accomplished speller. The dictation exercises have been written expressly for this volume,...
