Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Fifty Years of Irish Journalism, 1911 A Portion of the following pages was written during the nine months - excepting the brief vacation interval - which I spent at the Parnell Commission in London. The Court sat four days each week, sometimes only three, and this gave me a good deal of spare time which I utilised in writing portions of these reminiscences. People in every part of Ireland have repeatedly said to me Why don t you write your reminiscences? My answer, speaking generally, for the last twenty years, has been that I had not time. Recently, however, I have had occasional short periods of leisure in which I have been enabled to complete my self-imposed task. I am well aware that the narrative is very much of a personal nature, but possibly it may prove of some interest as a picture of Journalistic life in Ireland during the troublous times to which it relates.
