Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Nothing frustrates us more than being stuck, and not knowing what to do in a given situation. Where do you go for help when you feel you have become stagnate in your faith? Pastor Olah addresses issues that Christians face when they want a biblical response. This book offers help if you are concerned about how to revitalize your prayer life. Working through change in your church programs and music ministry baffles a lot of Christians. What are considerations you need to evaluate when you think about leaving a church? Ideas are offered to those who are struggling with an addiction. Recognizing the lies in our life can free us from past experiences and current prejudices. These topics and others are considered in this book to help the Christian get over the roadblock that has prevented progress in their walk with God.
