Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Excerpt from Immortality Triumphant: The Existence of a God and Human Immortality Philosophically Considered, and the Truth of Divine Revelation Substantiated IN the first seven chapters Of this volume I have briefly investigated, and independently discussed, the Existence of a God, as the intelligent Creator and Governor of the universe; the Immortality of man in a future state of being, and the relation in which animal, and vegetable life stand to both God and man. In the last thirteen chapters I have, as I conceive, clearly and irresistibly proved the truth of divine Revelation by a philosophical axiom furnished us in the New Testament by our Saviour, and in the last chapter of the book I have bestowed a passing notice on the published letters of Miss Martineau and Mr. Atkinson, both of England. The above four great and interesting Subjects, that I have philosophically considered, embrace matter sufficient for at least four volumes of three hundred pages each, and hence I have been compelled to study condensation as well as brevity throughout, and in several instances to classify the materials of my subject in order to effect this end. Sensible of the solemnity and vast importance of my subject to man, and of the deep and thrilling interest that every reflecting mind must naturally feel in regard to its present happiness and future destiny, it should be read and understood by all. And as voluminous works are owned and read by comparatively but few individuals, not only on account of their price, but the discouraging thought of wading through an ocean of words, Often of extraneous matter, to gain the desired information, so I have labored to obviate these Objections,...
