When all is lost, a ghost of hope shows the way I thought that losing my sister was the worst thing that could ever happen to me. That having my father on death row for her kidnapping and suspected murder was the most pain I'd have to endure. I was wrong. Now, I've lost everything. But this time - there may be a chance to get it back. To fix things. To save at least one person I love. Because, it turns out, that team of shrinks was wrong. I didn't hallucinate my sister being dragged through a strange white door to avoid facing the reality of what my father did. I didn't imagine every strange thing that happened after. I'm not crazy. I'm an Enchanter. And I'm not the only one. Now, my friends and I will have to team up with other Enchanters to try and save the only person left that matters to me - and maybe start putting my life back together.
