The Black Wall of Silence (Hardback)

By Paul Morrissey

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2015. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Black Wall of Silence In the midst of the sexual abuse crisis that is tearing the Church apart, a Catholic priest is caught between fighting for the victims of sexual abuse and his bond of loyalty to the Church. What makes this conflict unique is the internal struggle of the priest who is gay, in a Church that is ashamed of his orientation and rewards him for his silence. While working as a chaplain in Riker s Island Jail, Father Zach learns from an inmate s confession, that the priest whom the inmate is accused of murdering, sexually abused him when he was a teenager. Father Zach discovers that his friend, who is now a bishop, was the one who reassigned this priest after his first abuse. The battle of the priest, determined to defend the inmate, and the bishop, intent on defending the Church, drives the plot to its courtroom climax. Which will prevail - honesty or loyalty? A taut, powerful story exploring the personal dimensions of the Catholic sexual abuse crisis. -- Kirkus Reviews A powerful book...

Reviews

This kind of pdf is every thing and made me seeking ahead plus more. It is probably the most amazing ebook i have study. I am quickly can get a enjoyment of reading a composed pdf.
