Russel Tracy Wolter II, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Prepare to embark on a truly incredible adventure. Sail along with the pirates as they brave the choppy waters in search of hidden treasure. Pirates wake up bright and early and start the day with pancakes. The pancakes go flipping through the air as the boat sways side to side. The platters come falling off the shelves and make a big mess. The chaos continues when the captian sees the map is missing! They have to find the map if they are going to find the treasure. The pirates look and they look, till finally they find it in the last place they would check. Once they find the map everything is much better again, yet the captain spies something very strange. A sailor is sailing through the sky, scooping clouds into a sack. The sailor meets a wizard stuck ontop of a mountain of string. The wizard needs help down because he forgot the magic word to turn himself into a bird. The sailor helps him down and lets him off at his house safe and sound. When the wizard gets home he trys to relax, but he hears a sea monster roar as it rises up from the ocean. The noise is disturbing him so he throws an apple out the window which magically grows bigger and bigger until it lands right in the sea monsters mouth. That s when the pirates go by and they luckily remain uneaten. Everything has to fall in place for the pirates to get to where they re going, but there are even more surprises to come. The adventure seems to never end.
