These Christian short stories are a series of chilling tales that are told by The Everyone's Church congregation. Their members embark on a journey of spiritual warfare of good and evil, where the devil tries to destroy their church and challenge their faith in God. This thriller deals with the supernatural and Satan's plan to conquer souls with his lies and deceit. By counseling his parishioners, the pastor discovers that a vast amount of them have gone to ungodly sources instead of God for the answers to their problems. Consequently, they now face the results of those immoral choices, and for that reason, the pastor prays for protection for himself and his congregation. Will the pastor be able to save his church from becoming Satan's territory? Will their faith be strong enough to withstand Satan's evil plans against the church? If you're looking for a faith-based book that is dripping with suspense and mystery, coming together in a climactic ending, then you just found it!.
