By Mark Roemmich

Lysestrah Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Book Cover by Design (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.SHINDIG ON THE GREEN is famous for its seasonal festivals and musical venues. Live music and arts are a significant element in this tourism-based economy and surrounding areas. A large crowd of tourists and locals are milling about along the river, experiencing the arts and crafts and food displays, as well as the many single artists and Bluegrass bands featured in the farmer s market atmosphere. Jacob Labrecque has been coming to the Shindig on the Green since he was a young lad. He is walking with his family, which is made up of a daughter named Amy Harris and her husband, Ray. He was also blessed with a granddaughter named Emily, who is about eight years of age. She is quite small for her age, and she is always sporting a very old-fashioned hat that covers most of her head. It has small flowers on one side, and she will not leave the house without it. Emily is full of life and leaves her mark everywhere she goes. There is not a person in Asheville that...
