Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Chris had to leave the federal government to keep his ethics and sanity intact. The things he will share in this book will help you become informed on what is really going on in Washington D.C. and why no one is at fault. The increasing desire for gun owners to buy ammunition and why Homeland Security is buying even more.even under budget constrains. Why were American banks just reviewed for their integrity to handle catastrophic market failure and why most failed the test? Why bullets are not enough and laser weapons will be used in any major US civil war. When the markets seem to climb higher and construction projects abound are not indications of progress but are instead indications of a false start and why it is a false start. This is not a doomsday novel, it is the beginning of a new era in America and if your not keen on change than you will be wiped out when it comes. Stocking up food is not enough, buying bullets is not enough. Your greatest asset will be the relationships you form with people, certain assets, and even your emotional resolve to rise above the rest. A larger thing is at work among all of this and even a crossed the globe. Can you determine what or who that is? The UN, America, Obama, or maybe China? Perhaps no one? No one can deny the global unrest, but who can actually define what is causing that unrest?.
