Chasseen. Paperback. Condition: New. 238 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.5in. Mount Pavin, in present-day southern France, erupted in 4040BC and the Chasseen people who lived there were forced to flee. Busher takes his clan on an adventure that shakes their hunter-gatherer lifestyle. It tears apart his sons, their clans and all who follow. It is the painful birthing of European agricultural life. Acorns to Wheat: A Chasseen Family Saga is the story of fictional lives in the real world of 4000BC. These were the first farmers. Before the Romans, the Greeks or the Gauls, there were the Chasseen. This is more than fierce gods, dry bones and broken pottery. Read BEYOND the research and feel the people come alive. Author David Wm. Allmans book is a creation of life stories based on archaeological digs of the Chasseen sites. Flesh has been restored to bones. Allman translates the technical jargon of scientific journals to create a believable portrayal of life 6000 years ago in what would become southern France. Allman goes beyond the archaeology to tell the story of lives filled with the suspense and drama of a family living in an ancient world. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
