That Divine grace which, beyond all controversy, is the great element of saving power, does, with great uniformity, cooperate with the clearest, strongest, and most earnest inculcation of truth; while the preacher whose thoughts are feeble, puny, and obscure, and uttered heartlessly, is never likely to be honored with a sanction which might be mistaken for Heaven s approbation of ignorance or indolence. The Church has never more reason to be ashamed than of ministers who no longer try to preach well-- who only go to their study to read newspapers and periodicals, and have nothing fresher and better for their pulpit than the dry, cold fragments of oft-tasted feasts, or the yet more refuse and unwholesome viands which the troublous agitations of the moment are able to galvanize into...
