FBC LTD, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Louisiana Conservationist, Vol. 11: December, 1959 By the above we refer to the acquisition of the commission s Caldwell Game Management area, in Caldwell parish, by private interests and we assure you that there will be no hunts on these grounds by the public. The loss of this area may be traced to the pure and simple fact that the commission does not have the funds with which to lease additional lands. Unless the legislature sees fit to appropriate necessary funds for land acquisition, other lands will go to private interests and will not be available for public shooting. More and more private clubs and camps are being organized throughout our state and nation for the acquisition of hunting grounds which will be Open only to the select few and unless we wish to get left out in the cold and be faced with the necessity of raking over what is left of the least desirable lands it is time we get after our solons to wake up. However, we in Louisiana are not the only people faced with this dilemma and we have the backing of conservation groups throughout the nation who are constantly calling to the attention of their own groups the dire situation which all conservation agencies face. We have spoken before of the shrinkage of our public domain through the encroachment of civilization, industry and explosive human populations. Of how the human race is overrunning the earth and of how demands upon each acre Of land are mounting steadily.
