BOOKS ABOUT THE BLIND: A BIBLIOGRAPHICAL GUIDE TO LITERATURE RELATING TO THE BLIND (CLASSIC REPRINT) (HARDBACK)*DOWNLOAD

Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Annotated edition. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Books About the Blind: A Bibliographical Guide to Literature Relating to the Blind This volume has been conceived as a compilation of special annotated bibliographies on various subjects relating to the blind. This form was decided upon after years of experience with students in the Library of the American Foundation for the Blind had - indicated that such classified lists were more helpful to them than would be a single comprehensive bibliography on the blind. Literature relating to the blind is not of a homogeneous character. Consequently, much of this material is included in the larger general libraries and can be located if a proper bibliographical guide is at hand. It is hoped that this volume may serve as such a guide and thus enable interested persons to obtain the references they need in the library most conveniently located for them. In a sense, it may be said that it is the purpose of this volume to make any large library serve as a special library on the blind. The selection of references included in this compilation has been based mainly on the book collection in the Library of the American foundation for the Blind. Over 3500 items have been examined. Much of the literature on the blind, however, may be said to be repetitious and in many cases is of a more emotional than factual character. Therefore, it was thought to be in the interest of the student to make this compilation somewhat selective, giving preference to the more important and relevant items, especially in regard to the very extensive literature on the blind found in various foreign languages. The final number of annotated references included is about...
