

The Journey.and the voice, the signal and the noise

By Vijay Mehra

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 248 pages. Amar was used to flying around the world. As an international corporate executive, he had a roster of frequent flier miles that would be the envy of any multinational businessman. But on what should be a routine flight from Mumbai to Chicago, his journey turns into a personal saga where Amar reminisces over key failures and successes in his life. In the process he learns to appreciate life to its fullest, for all its beauty, for all its promise and all its imperfections. In Vijay Baldev Mehra's debut novel, The Journey and the Voice, The Signal and the Noise, the reader will accompany Amar on the backward-looking journey through his life. Through the lens of Amar's life, the reader will get insights into the beauty of his or her own life, for all its ups and downs, all its successes and failures and all its imperfections. As the jetliner settles into cruising altitude, Amar begins to zone in and out of scenes from his childhood, adolescence and the early years of what will later be his highly successful career. At 40,000 feet above sea level, Amar begins to listen to the voice emanating...
