And the modern breadth of view with reference to scholastic purpose, and the rapid growth in appreciation by the people of the benefit of scientific instruction could have no more striking illustration than the establishment, under the auspices of the State, in contact with schools of liberal arts, of politics and of law, of this school of agriculture. I am reminded of the occasion when, fifteen years ago, as a member of the staff of instruction of this University, I listened to the inaugural address of its new President. I remember well the mingled expressions of concern as to the wisdom of his policy and admiration at his courage not to say audacity - in...
