Many people just want to be loved the right way by others. There are some good people in the world but they are scared to get hurt. So they close their heart to others in hope that people will never hurt them again. God wants us to love others without fear. God created us so that we could experience happiness and joy. When we love others without truly loving them; we go through the motion and we do not experience true emotion. Allow God to teach you how to love others the right way. And in return you will learn the right way that others are suppose to love you.
