By James N. Hall

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 148 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. Pyramids of God began as an applied research into the book FUTURLOGICS a system of prospective thinking copyright 1983 written by James N. Hall. While discussing each Saturday morning the ideas and theories of thinking found in the Futurlogics, Julie and James noticed a parallel between the Ten Commandments given to Moses and the Beatitudes of Jesus of Nazareth. This parallel was very marked, due to the futurological method of metaphorical thinking. Perhaps this paradigm was enough to toggle the inner vision to the underlying relationship between the Old Testament law and the New Testament blessedness. We may call this inner vision the observer effect. While the observer effect is basic to the principles in the Futurlogics, where prior knowledge; or, a mode of learning can and does alter the things seen and thought about. Perhaps the concepts and connections found in this book can be attributed to this observer effect. Be that as it may, it is found useful and experimental, even profitable to the words of God and may be found profitable for learning. We are going to...
