

Economic Empowerment for Everyone in South Africa: Creating Heroes from Zeroes (Paperback)

By Eng Iloki Siziba

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.South Africa has a mineral resources rich, strong and resilient infrastructure development focused economy supported by well organized financial sector and monetary authority. However, like in the rest of Africa, the indigenous people have little benefit they get from the resources the country is endowed with. In South Africa, the government has implemented several mechanisms to address that in order to bring the formally marginalized people into the mainstream economy. However, the rate at which the indigenous population is economically empowered means it will take time to reach the majority and this has resulted in negative energy and change politics. This economic empowerment series aims to supplement the programmes implemented by the government of South Africa to economically empower the indigenous populace en masse. The series have taken cognizance of the fact that most African children, including most South African children, grow in environments where their parents cannot teach them about business and money at a tender age. This has led to the country being economically dominated by a minority with the knowledge even after years of attaining freedom from apartheid. It...
