Austin Macauley Publishers, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. When Daniel finds an unusual stone on the beach his problems really begin. The stone seems to bring nothing but trouble, both in the present and the past. There is no-one he can tell because it is not normal to see and talk to a dragon, nor travel through time. Dan is rapidly coming to the conclusion that nothing is normal anymore. When the local Hardnuts take an interest in him, he finds himself pitted against a vindictive gang. The past is just as dangerous as the present and he needs to change it fast, while he has a chance of surviving. Soon he is fighting not only to save his own life but the lives of innocent animals, victims of the gang. Can he work with the dragon Talis to change the past and the present? Is he brave enough? The Dragonstone Journal will leave the reader under no illusions what really matters in life but a more challenging question will remain and that is, what is reality?.
