Excerpt from Transactions of the North Carolina State Dental Association, at the Twenty-Sixth Annual Session: Held at Greensboro, N. C., Commencing May 9th, 1900 A primrose by the river's brim A yellow primrose is to him, And it is nothing more. Don't imagine from my introduction that I am going to make you a flowery speech. I shall do nothing of the kind. Even with the added incentive of a fine day in May and the inspiring presence of ladies who grace this occasion. I have only given you thus much to lure you on and to get your attention. I shall not discuss flows. If I shall display some before you, I only ask that you select those you think worthy and cast aside the rest. Ethics, concisely defined, is the science of human duty. Broad As broad as the field of human activity and of human need. Old Yes! Born with the creation of man and from that other creation when forth from his side sprang that human relation which should evolve the exercise of human duty. Then was...
