Excerpt from Report of the Joint Committee of the General Assembly on the Public Works: Appointed by the Act of April 11, 1856, Entitled an Act for the Appointment of Three Joint Investigating Committees, Defining Their Powers and Prescribing Their Duties The treatment we have received from all the members of the board has been such as the kind tone of this note seemed to justify us in expecting. The law appointing us made it our duty during the recess of the General Assembly, fully to investigate all the transactions and expenditures of the Board of Public Works, and make report thereon at the adjourned session. It will be seen that the field of investigation opened to us by the act is very extensive, and that the duties imposed upon us are various and important. We saw at once that it mattered not how much we might do, a great deal must of necessity remain undone, for in the short time allotted to us by the law, it was utterly impossible to do every thing that it appeared to authorize. Finding...
