Endless Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 127 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.0in. Not Just Darker is the latest know works of the singing poet depression artist Alexander J Dawson. The collection is rich in mysterious misery and complicated over-simplifications. The best way it has been described was from the mouth of the author himself during a recent interview with Faux Knews, he said, not just darker is far from a bound collection of my writings. . . it is a. . . its 127 pages of the closest possible arrangement of language that could be found in order to reflect the current experience were moving-about in. Its an explosion; an expression, on the face of a body that were too small to see, or too involved in, to take notice of. . . not just darker is full of spirit and uncertainty. . . its an everlasting moment of hope-soaked madness. . . its the desperate crawl of an ant, who has left the Queen, to seek-out a truth beyond these flat realities. . . Its a stretch, its 10,000 walks of life, climbing, stuck on the same step. Its poetry, they say, and theyre probably half-right. All I know is the book sort of Frankensteind itself together while I was trying to stay alive, and its not just darker than the others, its also ultra-bright. You dont have to buy it, but youre in there anyway. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
