

Sgt. Potters Homecookin with Short Cuts

By Jennifer Palk

Dog Ear Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 172 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. My name is Jennifer Palk. Many people remember me as Sergeant Potter. I learned to bake at a very young age, and I love baking. I served in the U. S. Air Force for 17 years, for much of that I was a single mother and my sons were young. We always had baked cookies at my house growing up so baking has always been a part of me. Creating recipes I tried out my different versions on the flyers in the Air Force and they would give me feedback!! I had some student flyers that had been away from home for months and my baking was their first taste of home a long time. Being a single mom and Air Force hours I learned to make short-cuts to be able to bake and make home cooking and still have quality time with my sons. The recipes in this cookbook are short-cuts to home-style cooking because these days we dont have much time with all the homework our children get and our jobs. You still want to give your family good quality food without throwing...
