ARCHAEOLOGY AS A TOOL OF CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

AltaMira Press,U.S. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Archaeology as a Tool of Civic Engagement, Barbara J. Little, Paul A. Shackel, Archaeology as a Tool of Civic Engagement is an indispensable resource for archaeologists and the communities in which they work. The authors are intensely committed to developing effective models for participating in the civic renewal movement - through active engagement in community life, in development offer interpretive and educational programming, and for in participation in debates and decisions about preservation and community planning. Using case studies from different regions within the United States, Guatemala, Vietnam, Canada, and Eastern Europe, Little and Shackel challenge archaeologists to create an ethical public archaeology that is concerned not just with the management of cultural resources, but with social justice and civic responsibility. Their new book will be a valuable guide for archaeologists, community planners, historians, and museum professionals.
