Cyber War I

By Ed Mahoney

Lobo Media Ltd. Paperback. Condition: New. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. There is money in cybercrime, yet the stakes are higher in cyberwar, where nation-states battle to cripple their foes capacity to operate in the information age. In Cyber War I, Iran launches a six-day cyberwar against the West to level the playing field of technology powers. Rob Warner feels he is at the end of his career. He knows he has a great job, but hes ready to retire. The work isnt as fun as when he was technical. Reluctantly, Rob finds himself in the middle of the action, and in a position to stop the pending destruction. If hes willing to sacrifice his career, jeopardize his retirement, and put his life in harms way, then he can lead his team of security analysts and forensics experts to counter-attack and save his country from devolving back to the digital stone age. Cyber War I marries a high-tech thriller with a primer on computer security in this authors debut novel. From his vivid description of the raised floor in a data center, to detailing a ransomware attack, Ed interprets this complex world for his readers. His authentic characters display their...
