DON T LET THE GREEN GRASS FOOL YOU: A MEMOIR ABOUT THE LEGENDARY SOUL SINGER WILSON PICKETT (PAPERBACK)

Fulton Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Louella Pickett-New was legendary soul singer Wilson Pickett s sister no. 4, to whom he gave the nickname Lucy Coot and mostly called just Coot throughout his life. She lived with him in New York City as a teenager during the 1960s when he was at the peak of his fame. He threw her a sweet sixteen party. She tried in vain to teach him to dance. She s the Little Lucy Doin the Watusi in his hit song Land of a Thousand Dances In this book, named after another of his hits, a beloved little sister pays tribute to her famous big brother. Merging her own memories with those of the rest of their siblings as well as others who were close to him, Louella paints a portrait of the complex and wounded man behind the powerful and powerfully expressive voice that sang In the Midnight Hour and so many more enduring soul classics. Louella is married to Emmett New, and they have two adult children, Katina and Dominic. They reside in Stone Mountain, Georgia. Louella has a master s degree in business and works for a community action agency in Decatur, where she is the accounting manager. She also sings in the choir at her church and volunteered her spare time as the church comptroller for many years. She enjoys baking her famous peach cobbler from her grandmother s recipe.
