She was born into the Baptist faith, although her mother braided her hair in the style of a child in India. After sampling a yoga class as a teenager, she embraced Hinduism as her religion of choice, finding it to be supportive of her love of her native landscape, and the plants and animals who reside there. Hinduism, in a form she understands as a Midwesterner, has proven to be more satisfying to her in answering the questions she has about the universe and our place in it, than the Christianity she grew up with. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
