Outskirts Press, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.How do children learn respect? Where do they learn about respect? Can respect be taught by the time children enter school? All compelling questions and answers will vary from person to person. One thing is for sure, children love stories, and a story that concentrates on a theme makes it that much easier to teach. The Life of E s series concentrates on a young boy that has a tremendous character. Each story is centered around a theme and presented in a way that children can easily understand. Discussion questions are also available for the students once the story is finished. The stories are designed to help reinforce character education for school aged children.
