Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Thompson s Island Beacon, Vol. 49 As this is being written, on April 20, we must say that the Island presents a lovely picture. In fact, many have said that never before has the Island looked so beautiful. An early spring, with ideal weather, has given us opportunity to assist nature in her work, and we have made the most of it. The Sophomore Class presented a very timely and interesting program at Assembly on April 23. It was an adaptation from a radio play, Talk Their Language, which appeared in a recent issue of the Scholastic magazine. The story concerned the returned servicemen, and gave practical and valuable advice on how to meet the problems which both our returned heroes and the general public must face. Musical selections completed the program. The sixth graders gave a program at the Assembly on April 30. It was in nature humorous, and there were many interesting recitations and musical selections given. Kenneth W. Duquet, one of our eighth graders, had the honor and distinction of winning a prize of one dollar in war stamps in a contest sponsored by the magazine Open Road for Boys. Congratulations! This contest was national in scope and those who won prizes were notified by letter, and by having their names printed in the magazine. The principal recreation of the boys during the month was softball. This very popular game was played, in organized competition, by nearly all of the boys. Each of the six league teams played two games each week, and the schedule will not be completed until the close of the school year early in June. Meanwhile the grand...
