The Lovers, a play directed by Matt Wicker and starring James Oakley, is about to open its doors to an audience, but a far greater drama is playing out backstage. Matt and James have been having a secret relationship for two months, during the rehearsal process for the production. A review after press night causes suspicion and jealousy between the two men and they both try to balance their growing love for each other with the pressure of the production. Will Matt manage to keep hold of both his dream job and his dream man? Will the experience bring them closer together, or drive them apart forever? Have your copy NOW!
