Angels, Chimps, Tater Mitts is a collection of humor as Mike Ball muses about the world around him, facing the tide of anything and everything with knowledge fit for a spell on the old throne. With plenty of knowledge mixed in with the wit, Angels, Chimps, Tater Mitts is an excellent and much recommended pick for general humor and memoir collections. - Able Greenspan, Midwest Book Reviews For years the essays of award-winning humorist Mike Ball, published under the title What I've Learned So Far. have evoked laughter and tears in readers all over the world. Mike's sharp wit, blended with his gentle homespun style, has been compared to Mark Twain, Erma Bombeck, Dave Barry and even Ernie Pyle. One reader said, Mike Ball can make me laugh and cry in 400 words. This is second What I've Learned. So Far book. Volume I, Bikes, Docks Slush Nuggets, was published in the fall of 2009.
