

The Big Picture: A Camera, a Young Woman, an Uncompromising Ethic (Paperback)

By Rod Raglin

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Young, talented, ambitious, Freyja Brynjarrson s a photographer struggling to crash the art establishment, the challenges presented by her family, and still keep true to her uncompromising ethic. Fate places her on the front line of a political demonstration where soldiers open fire on civilians. She photographs death for the first time and likes it. Because of the sensitive nature of her pictures the current government, facing an imminent election, tries to suppress them. But someone far more unscrupulous than government spin-doctors also wants those images destroyed. Gunnar Brynjarrson, Freyja s eldest brother is the head of an illegal narcotics empire. He s concerned about the opposition party s platform to decriminalize drugs. His sister s photographs could influence the outcome of a close election and put his business in jeopardy. As events unfold, Freyja slowly becomes aware of the far-reaching impact the billions of narco dollars have on the government, the economy, friends, family and even herself. Something insidious has infected society and like a super bug it s resilient, opportunistic and appears as a mutation in the most unexpected places. Freyja...
