As I entered the master bathroom I saw her lying naked in the tub. The color was completely gone from her face and she looked more like a manikin or porcelain doll. Her head was slumped back resting against the tile and the tub. On her neck starting a few inches below her right ear and ending a few inches below her left ear, was a gash that was obviously made by a knife. Her throat had been slit and it appeared that all the blood had been drained from her body. Detective Harry Stanton is a fifteen year veteran for the special Homicide division of the LAPD. In 1994, Harry comes up against his ultimate rival. The perpetrator has already committed two homicides. Harry and his new partner Steve, know they are faced with a serial killer and now it becomes a race against time. In a game of cat and mouse, Harry needs to connect all the dots and solve the puzzle in his homicide investigation before the killer wins the game. Can Harry and Steve catch...
