Steve Finch and his team are seasoned SAS operators just back from a hard routine operation in the Bad Lands of Syria and in much need of some serious RNR. Major Saint John the Head of UK Special Forces can t afford to let his men rest and calls the team in for an emergency meeting, a known terrorist has been spotted in the UK and needs lifting for MI5, but just as the team are about to grab Khalid all hell breaks loose, huge explosions rip through the newly built elegant buildings in London s docklands. Steve Finch and Mark Jones are positioned on top of the first tower hit by the explosions. With no chance of escape the two SAS operators go down with the tower in a falling mass of rubble and steel. Finch survives battered and bruised and full of hate at the loss of his best friend Finch now wants revenge. The target Khalid had set the Special Forces team up by using his contacts in MI5, but all is not as it seems. Khalid wants to start production of his highly advanced weapons with the help of his new backer Alexander Meeks, a billionaire arms dealer who is playing Khalid for a fool. The only thing Alex is after is the vial containing the Evolution Serum a liquid capable of increasing a humans healing, speed and recovery abilities, but its hidden inside Khalid s secret vault. Alex is a master of misdirection and subterfuge, with a top CIA and MI6 agent in his pocket, along with the new British Prime Minister, his plans start to come together by...
